CHC22015 CERTIFICATE II IN COMMUNITY SERVICES

OVERVIEW

This course is designed for those who are passionate about supporting people in their community. CHC22015 Certificate II in Community Services provides foundational knowledge and skills to support individuals on their pathway to entry level roles in Community Services, including Youth Work, Disability and Aged Care.

Community Service workers provide support, programs, activities, and information for those who need it most, linking people with the appropriate services, groups and communities.

Upon successful completion of the qualification students may be eligible for up to 4 QCE credits as nominated by the QCAA.

BENEFITS OF WORKING IN THE COMMUNITY SERVICES SECTOR

- Graduates of this course will be able to seek employment in entry level positions across the diverse Health and Community Services sector in areas including Community Work, Disability, Aged Care, Leisure and Health
- In addition to providing a nationally accredited qualification, CHC22015 Certificate II in Community Services provides students with a learning pathway to more advanced studies across the Health and Community Services sector
- Skills Generation supports this growing industry through our not-for-profit organisation - Skills Hubs, as well as through our traineeships

BENEFITS OF THE PROGRAM

This innovative program for schools supports students and high schools through:

- introducing an adaptable model that provides an accredited Certificate II qualification and an alternative pathway to QCE credits
- an interactive online self-paced and self-assessing learning platform
- incorporating interactive and engaging learning resources that encourage active student participation
- supporting an inclusive and self-paced learning environment aligned with the Queensland Department of Education and Independent Schools models of effective Learning and Wellbeing Frameworks
- providing training in skills areas preparing students for the future workforce
- facilitating career development by enabling schools to easily incorporate industry-specific pathways into classroom lesson plans

COURSE DELIVERY AND FEES

The HyFlex Skills learning platform delivers Community Services learning and teaching resources online via Learning Bytes and Supplementary Assessments. Learning Bytes are engaging, self-assessing online training modules. Schools receive weekly reports on student's progress. Teachers have a supervisory role and complete third party observation reports on student performance in Supplementary Assessments. Schools may also choose for students to undertake Supplementary Assessment in a workplace.
